Excerpt from Agricultural Economics As a result of this legislation there were in 1905, 43 institutions giving instruction in economic science, 14 spending less than $1000, 13 spending between $1000 and $2000, and 16 spending over $2000. These institutions possess advantages for the carrying on of investigation along certain lines in agricultural economics. The opportunity should not be overlooked by the friends of economic science. The members of this Association should not miss an opportunity to recommend for such positions men with ability to investigate the middle ground between agriculture and economics and should not fail to give to all worthy investigations encouragement and recognition. R. P. Teele: I have been asked by the chairman to present the conception of agricultural economics held by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. There is in the Department no bureau nor division which is charged with the study of agricultural economics, as such. However, every bureau and division has, or should have, constantly in view the economic value of the work which it is doing. Each studies certain elements of...
