The older idea was based on the theory that children were not citizens - that only adults were citizens. Therefore, civics teaching was usually deferred to the eighth grade, or last year of the grammar school, and then was mostly confined to a memorizing of the federal constitution, with brief comments on each clause. Today we recognize that even young children are citizens, just as much as adults are, and that what is wanted is not training for citizenship but training in citizenship. Moreover, we believe that the good citizen is one who is good for something in all the relationships of life. Habit Formation Accordingly, a beginning is being made with the early school years, where an indispensable foundation is laid through a training in morals and manners. This sounds rather old-fashioned, but nothing has been discovered to take its place. Obedience, cleanliness, orderliness, courtesy, helpfulness, punctuality, truthfulness, care of property,...
