Anyone who has tried online dating knows the importance of first impressions. Hopeful daters jump into the love pool with their eyes closed to what's really around them. Their mind is so cluttered with what should be that they miss out on what is. Tracy Freese fully admits her mind was cluttered when it came to online dating. She wanted the tall, dark and handsome fairy-tale like so many of us do. So how did she achieve her happy ending? Minimalist Meeting, Mating and Online Dating gives readers a voyeuristic look into how Tracy dipped her toes in the online dating pool and how she streamlined her cluttered approach into a minimalist approach that ended up landing her the man of her dreams - but not necessarily what she set out to find. This e-book also serves as a how-to-guide for those looking to kick the clutter to the curb and meet the ideal match for them. A push-up bra and stacked heels were my weapons of choice, and I was out for total annihilation. Sure, I looked the part of man bait --sexy and self-confident--but my concept of happiness was still socially cluttered, and utterly oblivious. So when readers look to me for an online dating how-to manual, please remember, I am a self-proclaimed dating fool . The only solace I can give my readers is I have been there and done that, so learn from my mistakes and go forth successfully. After the research was done and over, I struggled with how to rationalize being successful online with being authentic online because successful dating online is many times giving in to the unhealthy gender pressures...
