They say to him, We will not get us gone from this place until we have taken those seven men with us. Because it is for that purpose we have come hither and for that purpose shall we stay until it be achieved. Well, then, said Sir Galahad, I will assail ye upon this side, and then they will come forth and assail ye upon the other side, and so will we raise this siege. At this they all laughed, saying, Is it possible that one knight can lift the siege of so many against seven? Well, then, let us see if he can do so. So they began to prepare themselves for battle, and Sir Galahad began to prepare himself also for battle. So, when he had cast doeth battle aside his lance and had drawn his sword he lifted up his...
