The Disinfecting Department was formed about 36 years ago, and was equipped in 1894, with a Washington Lyons Disinfector, and is now one of the largest and best appointed in the United Kingdom, a sum of over 2,000 being expended in enlarging it in 1898. As the Kilmainham, Clontarf, and Drumcondra Townships have no proper machinery for disinfection purposes, the residents in these Townships, together with those living in the Rural Districts under the control of the North and South Dublin Unions, availed themselves of the Dublin Disinfecting Department. Attached to the Disinfecting Department there are three ambulances for the conveyance of fever patients to Hospital. The clothing, bedding, and other articles from infected houses, whether in the City or outside, is conveyed in vans specially built for the purpose to the Disinfecting Department. There is a staff of 33 men and women kept continually employed, and the number is sometimes very much augmented. The following table will give an idea of the amount of work done in this Department. BATHS AND WASH-HOUSES, TARA STREET. The Baths and Wash-houses were opened in May, 1885. One hundred and forty-one thousand and...
