Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address: Adopted by the Whig State Convention, at Worcester, September 13, 1848, Together With the Resolutions and Proceedings Who shall be elected? In whose hands will the institutions of our country and the liberties of the people be most secure? This question involves the political character of the two candidates. From a full and careful view of the whole subject, we have no hesitation in giving our preference to Gen. Taylor, and in recommending him for your support; and we are confident that the more you study his character, the more cheerfully will you give him your suffrages. Gen. Taylor. - His Character, and the Reasons why he should be supported by Whigs. Though Gen. Taylor was in the first instance brought prominently before the people by his brilliant military achievements, yet it is not as a mere military man, that we commend him to your consideration. We are aware that the fortune of a battle may turn upon a mere accident, against which no human foresight could guard, and hence a single victory does...
