Excerpt: . a. In the body of our narrative we have spoken of the effort made to bring the Morgan aoductors to punishment, as an abortive attempt. We cannot better justify the use of that language, than by giving in full the report which follows: -- REPORT, c. The President of the Convention (Mr. John C. Spencer), from the committee appointed on that subject, remarked, that the convention had done him the honor, by a special resolution, to place him at the head of the committee, probably from the circumstance that his official connection with the prosecutions in question had given him ample opportunity to become acquainted with the proceedings, respecting which the convention had desired information; and that a report had accordingly been prepared, which would now be submitted: -- A history of the judicial proceedings had in the State of New York, to...
